WEST HAWAI'I
PALAMANUI
Culinary Arts Program

The Palamanui Kitchen Campaign Slogan:

“The kitchen is the heart of the home, the Hawaii Culinary Arts Program is the heart of the Palamanui Campus.”

The Campaign Purpose:

The American Culinary Federation is pleased with progress on the long-awaited Hawaii Community College - Palamanui, opening in 2014. The ACF Kona Kohala Chefs Association members are industry leaders committed to culinary development and education within the membership and throughout the community. This group of food service professionals, vendors and growers comprises one of the most active chapters in the American Culinary Federation. It is their earnest desire to support the new culinary campus by helping to secure funds for equipment for the teaching kitchens.

There will be two 1200 square foot kitchens and an 800 square foot baking kitchen. The facilities will enable 65 students per semester to work toward their AAS degree in Culinary Arts. This program prepares students to enter the hospitality industry, including world-class restaurants.

The Campaign Goal: A $1,000,000 goal of capital funds is being sought to equip the kitchens. The campaign is anticipated to be completed with all cash and pledges received by the end of 2013.

The Culinary Arts Program at the Hawaii Community College - West Hawaii Center is currently located in a small shopping center in Kealahou with limited space and facilities. The areas of concentration are Certificate and Degree Programs, Advanced Culinary and Hospitality Training Programs. The Culinary Arts Program is fully accredited by the American Culinary Federation. It also provides direct industry placement and the development of qualified committed professionals ready to be successful leaders in the culinary field.

The Campaign Timeline:

The Culinary Arts Program plans to move into the Palamanui facility in 2014. “The Board of Regents University of Hawaii is grateful for the commitment and support of the Kona Kohala Chef’s
